WESTERN TOWN

MADE GOOD FUEL

Flames Got Beyond the Control of the Firemen,
and Wiped Town
From Map.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Aberdeen, Wash., Oct. 17.—Fire that burned from 9 in the morning until 2 o'clock in the afternoon caused four deaths and destroyed property valued at approximately $1,000,000. It practically wiped out ten blocks and the main business street of the town,
which was built mostly of wood.

Not more than half of the loss is covered by insurance, for the reason that the insurance companies have refused to carry any greater risk on account of the inflammable material of which all the buildings in Aberdeen
are constructed.

Fire Gains Headway.
Every business man in the city is a loser either by fire, water, removal
breakage, or loss by theft. Not anticipating that the flames could get beyond the fire department's control
many waited until the fire was close upon them before starting to move out. The streets were soon littered with all kinds of material and the rush
and haste of teams and people in every direction caused great confusion.

The fire started in the old Mack building in Hume street, owned by Oscar Crane, which had been regarded as a fire trap and dangerously constructed building.

Whole Block Burns.
From the Mack block the fire spread to the new headquarters of the fire department. In a short time the flames had jumped across the alley to Walker's saloon, and every building in the block bounded by Heron and F and H streets, including Kaufman's brick building, went up. Word was sent along every business street to prepare for the worst, and as far up as the Commercial block there were hurried preparations to get out of danger.

On the north side of Heron street
the fire jumped from the Anderson
block to the State bank, and every store from that corner to Hay's bank,
and all the buildings in the block
bounded by Heron G. Wishkah, and H streets were burned.

Blow Up Buildings.
George Wolfe's dry goods store in the Weatherwax block went next and then came the destruction of the Crescent hotel.

In order to stop the further progress of the flames dynamite was used on several of the buildings upon which the flames were advancing. Telephone messages brought the fire departments of Aquilum and Montevideo to the scene, and they did effective work.

When the fire reached the Pullman saloon one man was killed and several injured by a wall giving away. Among the injured was Fire Chief Koehler.
The other fatalities were at the Mack building.

Aberdeen has a population of about 7,000 and the chief industry is lumbering. Several large sawmills are located near the town, but the fire did not reach them.

PIUS X. ISSUES FIRST
ENCYCLICAL LETTER

Dwells at Length on the Irreligion of the People, but Predicts the Triumph of the Lord.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 17.—A copy of the first encyclical of Pius X. addressed to "The patriarchs, primates, archbishops, bishops and other ordi-naries in peace and communion with the apostolic see" throughout the world, has reached Baltimore. Its tone is of a character to strengthen the impression that Pius X. will go down in history as a "religious" pope.

The encyclical dwells on his reluctance to accept the high office, deplores the growing irreligion of the age, which he characterizes as a terrible and deep-rooted malady, and announces that his program is to rest on all things in Christ. His holiness says that "every effort and every artifice
is used to destroy utterly the memory
and the knowledge of God" but predicts "the triumph of the Lord."

"Who can help being appalled and afflicted," he asks, "when he beholds
in the midst of a progress in civilization justly extolled the greater part of mankind fighting among themselves
so savagely as to make it seem as though strife were universal?"

Commenting on the present conflict between labor and capital, he declares that peace can come only with God.
"The way to Christ," he says, "is through the church."

He refers at length to the education
of priests, warns against the snares
of the so-called higher criticism, urges

NOVEMBER VENIRE

ELECT OFFICERS
FOR THE YEAR

The Vudor Porch Shade Company
Chooses Its Executive Board.

At a meeting of the Vudor Porch
Shade company the following officers were elected: President, Don Farnsworth; vice-president, R. M.
Boitwick; secretary, George King;
P. Hohenadel, Jr., treasurer; Mr.
Hough, superintendent, and Mr.
Belknap of Chicago, managing director.

SURPRISES MAY BE IN STORE TODAY

First Hard Games of the Season on the Gridiron Are Scheduled for Today.

It is probable that some surprises
may be sprung in the football games
throughout the country this afternoon. In the first place it will be the first opportunity to get a line on Wisconsin's playing as compared with Michigan when the Badgers line up against the Minsters from Beloit at Madison. Michigan took a decided crime out of Beloit last Saturday and the Badgers do half
as well as did the Ann Arbor boys
the result will be gratifying to the followers of the Cardinal. Chicago has the agile Northwestern players scheduled for their annual game and the Midway Dancers may find they have struck a snag.

Minnesota takes Iowa up for a trial. Michigan has Indiana team to toy with. Illinois will find what stuff Purdue is made of. Notre Dame has DePaul and Oberlin, Ohio, Wesleyan, Ames plays Coe and Nebraska has the Haskell Indians as opponents.

The East.

Harvard will have to look again
to its goal lines when the soldiers from West Point line up this afternoon and perhaps they may repeat Amherst's trick and win. Yale has a soft thing with Pennsylvania state and Princeton must do its best against the Cassile Indians. Pennsylvania has its brown and the Columbia-Amherst game looks like a good thing for Amherst. Cornell had Bucknell and Dartmouth Williams.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.
Colonel Sir William Colville, King
Edward's master of the ceremonies, is dead of lung trouble. He was born in 1827.

A newspaper of Bucharest announces the betrothal of the Grand Duke Cyril, son of the czar's uncle, Vladimir, to the divorced Grand Duchess Victoria of Hesse, daughter of the late duke of Edinburgh.

The London Daily Telegraph asserts that Harland & Wolff, the shipbuilding firm of Belfast, has signed a contract to take all the iron and steel it requires from the United States Steel corporation. It is estimated that this will amount to 150, 000 tons annually.

Fearing difficulties with Austria
and Russia if he negotiates directly with Bulgaria, the sultan of Turkey has referred M. Natchevitch to the grand vizier, instead of allowing him
to continue his negotiations with the palace. This action diminishes the probability of success of M. Natchevitch's mission.

The Indiana Federation of Women's clubs elected Miss Minnetta
Taylor of Greencastle president.
Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Warren was elected president of the Ohio Women's Suffrage association.
W. J. Bryan announced that he will make his European trip, concerning which he had doubts a short time ago, and that he will leave Lincoln within a few days for
the east.

Royal Flush Causes Death.
Hazelton, Pa., Oct. 17.—While playing poker at his home Joseph Muralt
drew a royal flush and in his excitement dropped dead.

Philanthropist Dies.
Glasgow, Oct. 17.—William Quarrier,
the founder of the homes for Glasgow waifs, died at his home here.

THREE BUSHELS OF REASONS WHY THERE IS NO INTERFERENCE WITH TURKEY

FRIGHTFUL SCENE
ON PENNSYLVANIA

TWENTY WORKMEN KILLED IN A COLLISION.

A LARGE NUMBER INJURED

The Accident Occurred Near Trenton,
N. J., Between Two Work
Trains.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Trenton, N. J., Oct. 17.—By a rear-end collision early this morning of two work trains on the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania railroad near Washington crossing, twenty persons were killed, a large number injured, many fatally, although the reports of the numbers differ with the different reports. The dead were negro and Italian laborers who were on the road to work.

Horribly Mangled.
The slain were horribly mangled.
Heads were severed from bodies,
arms and legs cut in two. The work train was standing on a side track
when the collision happened. It was waiting for orders when the second train ran into it. All those killed were sitting in the construction train.

FIGHT TWENTY-NINE
HOURS WITH A WHALE

Steamer's Crew Subdues Huge Monster After the Ship Has Been Badly Damaged.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The whaling steamer Humber arrived at St. John's to dry dock for repairs after a royal battle off Cape Spear, N. F., with a monster whale, during which the steamer was badly strained and damaged.

The whale, which was 110 feet long,
was captured off Cape Spear.
When the whale was hit it started towing the vessel at the rate of seven miles an hour, though the engines
were reversed full speed, which, under ordinary conditions, would make a retrograde movement of about eight miles.

This continued for hours, the ship,
as the whale flew off in zigzag
courses, being almost towed under
the water, the sea washing the decks.
The fight with the whale lasted twenty-nine hours. The powerful windlass
on deck was badly wrecked.

MINE OPERATOR IS MURDERED

Slayer Is Son of Millionaire Owner
of Coal Fields.

Joplin, Mo., Oct. 17.—Gordon Allen, 32 years old, and a well-known mining operator, was shot and killed by Benjamin Aylor of Webb City at the Aylor
mine near Prosperity. Aylor is a son of J. W. Aylor, the millionaire mine owner. There were no witnesses to the shooting. A loaded revolver was found in Allen's pocket and it is alleged that he had threatened to kill Aylor. Aylor was arrested, but not placed in jail, pending the verdict of the coroner's jury. It will have long existed between the men because Aylor foreclosed a mortgage against Allen nine years ago. The men finally met, became involved in a quarrel and Aylor drew a pistol and fired five shots at Allen, three of which took effect.

Will Give $100,000 to Wooster.
Wooster, O., Oct. 17.—L. H. Severance of Cleveland during the last hour
of the Presbyterian synod pledged himself to give $100,000 of a million-dollar endowment wanted for the Wooster university. The cash is to be paid in installments of $10,000.

OCTOBER TRADE
IS SATISFACTORY

Increased Activity Is Shown
in the Distribution of Merchandise.

GAIN IN MOVEMENT OF FREIGHT

Railroad Managers Are Kept Busy Supplying Cars for Traffic on Their Lines, the Eastbound Shipments
Showing Increase in Farm Products.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 17.—Dan's Review, issued by R. G. Dun & Co., the mercantile agency, says:

"Under the stimulus of seasonable
weather conditions farm work progresses satisfactorily, and reports indicate some increased activity in the distribution of goods and in manufactures. October buying is of a gratifying volume, and while this is most apparent in the leading retail lines, the jobbing sections are also doing a fair
house trade, and make large shipments
of dry goods, furniture and carpets,
clothing and foot wear.

Railroad Business.
"Freight tonnage both East and West gained momentum, and railroad
managers and the movement of general merchandise the greatest hitherto experienced. Eastbound shipments exceeded a year ago in farm products, and there is also much diversion of food stuffs for export by way of the gulf outlets. Receipts of iron ore, coal and lumber by lake are heavier than a month ago, and vessel charters are in good request, with rates firm and profitable. No indications are noted of overproduction among the important
local industries, but much work has accumulated which cannot be completed for months to come, particularly in rails, structural iron and railroad equipment.

General Tone Is Good.
"Hardware of all kinds is somewhat difficult to obtain, supplies being low
and the current buying excellent for
the interior and lasting longer than expected. Furniture-makers are well filled with orders for domestic and foreign consumption. Hard woods are not readily available to meet the needs
of manufacturers, and the continued
scarcity holds prices to a high average. Lumber for railroad and building purposes is freely bought, country
shipments showing the best aggregate,
and although new building operations
in the city disclose some contraction,
local needs are of fair volume and the
yards well employed.

Grain and Live Stock.
"Grain shipments for six days, including 3,922,447 bushels of corn, aggregate over 6,274,395 bushels and are 8 per cent over the previous week.
The wheat market presented the most interest, owing to stronger buying and the scarcity of that cereal. Corn operations were on a large scale and sales of futures were influenced by growing supplies. Compared with closing prices of a week ago, wheat advanced 2 1/2 cents, and corn and oats
each declined three-eighths of a cent.
Live stock receipts, 310,503 head, are 4 per cent under the corresponding week of 1902. Buying of cattle and sheep showed less vigor early in the week, but later improved, and closing prices of both show a net loss of 5 cents per hundredweight.

Hog Prices Advance.
"Arrivals of desirable hogs had a sharp falling off, and on spirited bidding values were quickly advanced 50 cents. Provisions were in fair demand, principally for domestic account, but, while pork gained 35
cents, declines appear—in ribs, 25 cents and lard, 17 cents. Receipts increased—in sheep 1 per cent, wheat 3, corn and oats 5, flour 15, butter 17,
dressed beef 25, hides 45.

Largest Electric Generator.
The largest electric generator in Italy is at Vizzola on the river Tan-sin; it supplies 20,000 horse power to sixty-six communities.

NEXT SYNOD IS IN THIS CITY

Rev. Henderson Has Just Returned from Meeting of the Presbyterian Synod.

Reverend Henderson returned yesterday from the annual meeting of the Presbyterian synod at Neenah,
where he has been since Tuesday
last. The next meeting of the synod will be held in Janesville the second week of October, 1904. Mr.
Henderson speaks in the highest terms of the synod just closed and says that he does not believe that such an array of able speakers from outside the state have ever before been assembled by any church in Wisconsin. Among the noted di-vines present were: Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, the noted evangelist,
from New York; Dr. Richard Harlan, president of Lake Forest university; Dr. Arthur Brown, New York;
Dr. Henry Mason, Newark, N. J.;
and Rev. C. D. McAfee, of Chicago.
These same men will be present
next year at the Janesville meeting.
Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jackson and Miss Louise Hanson were present at the meeting just closed.

WENT TO MADISON
BY AUTOMOBILE

Party of Beloit Men Passed Through
City This Noon, En Route
For Madison.

F. M. Strong's large automobile from Beloit stopped in the city for a few minutes this noon en route
for Madison where the four members of the party will witness the Wisconsin-Beloit football game. Mr. F. M.
Strong was controlling the motive power and the passengers were Frank Van Wart, J. W. Crist and M.
C. Hanna of the Beloit Free Press.

MAN CAUGHT
UNDER DOORS

A Painter Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury in a Lumber Yard.

Otto Enlow, a painter employed by the Jeffries Lumber company, narrowly escaped serious accident this morning while painting some big doors to be used in an Illinois
roundhouse, and suffered severe bruises and strains by being caught
under one of them.

Seven of the doors had been placed on the vacant platform opposite the east side fire station side
by side, standing on edge and held in position by strips nailed along the upper edges. The entire row was suddenly blown over by a gust of wind and Enlow, who was on his knees painting one of the end
frames, was caught beneath the pile.

His calls for help attracted two of the firemen and several employees
of the yard and they rushed to his assistance. When extricated from his perilous position, his back and limbs pained him considerably and he was unable to continue work. It may develop that he has suffered internal injuries, as the weight of the mass of lumber was very great
and it was several minutes before he could be freed.

Each of the door weighed in the neighborhood of six hundred pounds
and the weight of two of them fell directly upon the unfortunate painter, while the remaining five added
to the load in proportion as the doors were standing only two or three feet apart.

STATE NOTES

The Rev. William Fritzmeier of Watertown has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Congregational church at Haywood.

John Zoern, Jr., aged 23 years,
son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zoern, who live near Brillion, was killed at Matton by being struck by a tree.
Mrs. James Hall, wife of a restaurant proprietor at Sau Claire,
shot herself in the right temple on Friday, but inflicted only a scalp
wound and will recover.

Frau Schumann-Helink has given up her contract with the Royal opera at Berlin, thus forfeiting her indemnify for breach of contract, reported to amount to $8,250, in order to sing in the United States, having been unable to obtain further leave of absence.

In connection with the installation of Principal Gordon of Queen's university, Kingston Ont., honorary dogrees have been conferred on President Edmund James of Northwestern university, Evanston, and Vice President H. J. Hudson of the University of Chicago.

SCHWAB'S MILLIONS GROW LESS

Steel Magnate Stops Charity Work Intended for New York Poor.

New York, Oct. 17.—Charles M.
Schwab has taken action which New Yorkers believe indicates that his fortune is slipping away from him. He has discharged all the workmen and stopped building operations on what he announced last year would be a $1, 000,000 pleasure resort for the poor children of New York. He notified John Donlan, the superintendent, of his dismissal Oct. 8 and said that the charity would be under the care of a night watchman and a caretaker until it was "deemed advisable to resume
building and grading operations."

MILLER DENIES
BEING BRIBED

Man Accused of Connection with Postal Fraud,
Gives Testimony
Before Court.

GOOD PROMISES

Syndicate Speculator Had Agreed To Eliminate All
Objectionable Features
of His Circulars.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 17.—D. V. Miller, a former second assistant attorney in
the postoffice department, on trial for alleged conspiracy to extort a bribe
from a turf concern, took the stand in his own defense. For over three hours he answered the fire of questions from the attorneys on both sides,
and at the end it was generally conceded that he had been an exceptionally strong witness for himself, both in direct and cross examination.

Miller told a full story of his life. He said he first met Johns as a neighboring farmer boy twenty years ago,
and explained how he came to be nicknamed "Jim." He said that on Nov.
29 he had received a telegram from Johns to enter his name as attorney for Ryan & Co., the complaining turf-men, and that was the day after Ryan
and Johns met at Terre Haute.

Appears Against Ryan.
Miller said that at the hearing of the Ryan case, Nov. 11, when Chris-tiansky sat as judge, he had appeared and for the government advocated that a fraud order issue against Ryan, but on the presentations that Ryan &
Co. would eliminate all objectionable features of the turf commission and guarantee enough deposits to pay all certificates. Christiansky allowed the concern to continue.

Miller testified that the much disputed supplemental report of the postoffice inspectors on the Ryan case was delivered to him Dec. 9, when Chris-tiansky was with him in their office,
and that the latter read it and said
there was nothing new in it and directed Miller to write a letter on the Ryan case, similar to the ruling in the Arnold case, but to write it with
"a string to it." The witness read the letter and explained that the first part was the ruling and the last part
was "the string."

"String" Checks Syndicate Men.
He explained that Ryan was not then paying on demand, but on thirty days' notice on account of being ruled out of the turf at New Orleans. Miller said "the string" was intended to prevent Ryan from using the letter for promoting or advertising his betting schemes. He had never advised Johns of the Ryan case pending in his office; when he received a telegram
from Johns to enter him as attorney in the Ryan case he did not show the telegram to Christiansky, as the latter was bitterly opposed to friends appearing as counsel in the department.
He answered Johns' letter in the usual
official way, he said, and gave no special information.

Denies Receiving Money.
He said he regarded his telegram and letters to Johns as personal and not as official. He denied that the
"Jim telegram," sent after that condition was mailed to Johns, was a condition meaning a favorable decision, and that Johns should go to Ryan promptly. Miller said he never asked or learned how Johns got in the Ryan case, and that he never received anything from Johns directly or indirectly.

Y. M. C. A. PICKS NEW OFFICERS

L. N. Seaman of Elgin Made President of State Association.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 17.—At the business session of the state convention of the Young Men's Christian association
the officers for the ensuing year were presented by the nominating committee and unanimously elected. They are as follows: President, L. N. Seaman, Elgin; vice presidents, O. L. Ben-way, Rock Island; E. P. Batley, Chicago; H. W. Avery, Belvidere; E. W.
Brown, Rockford; P. A. Strader, Chicago; secretary, L. D. Moore, Chicago;
assistant secretaries, P. A. Conrad, Champaign; J. O. Miller, Peoria.

MUTINY LEADERS ARE GUILTY

Given Life Sentence for Killing Fort Leavenworth Prison Guard.

Leavenworth, Kan., Oct. 17.—The five leaders of the Fort Leavenworth
prison mutiny of November, 1901,
charged with killing Guard Waldrup,
were found guilty of murder by a jury in the United States circuit court here and given life sentences. The prisoners are Gilbert Nullins, Turner
Barnes, Frank Thompson, Fred Robinson and Robert Clark. Nullins and Robinson had practically finished their terms at the time of the outbreak, and the others were short-term
men.

Years—Family Have Occupied the Same House for Nearly Forty Years.

On Saturday, October 21st, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Garry Fifield will have been married for fifty years. In commemoration of the event there will be a large gathering at the Fifield home, 204 Jackson street. All the immediate relatives of the family and a reception will be held and supper served to the assembled guests. Plans had been made for a more elaborate celebration but owing to the death of Mrs. Fifield's sister, Mrs. H. L. Washburn, the family only will be invited to be present.

Old Settlers
Both Mr. and Mrs. Fifield are old settlers in Wisconsin. Mr. Fifield came to the state from Berlin, Vt., in 1836, and walked overland from Milwaukee to Janesville that same year. He was employed in the first saw mill ever operated in the Rock River valley and helped build the first frame house in Jefferson county. Mrs. Fifield came to Wisconsin in the early fifties and kept house for her two brothers, Edward and Charles Copeland, who lived in Jefferson county. It was while she was there that she met Mr. Fifield and a year after her return home Mr. Fifield went east to West Bridgewater, Massachusetts and claimed his bride.

Old Families
Both Mr. and Mrs. Fifield come of very old colonial families. Mrs. Fifield is a descendant of Miles Stan-

MR. AND MRS. E. G. FIFIELD.

Jish, the mighty captain of the Plymouth colony, Frances Cook and John and Priscilla Alden. These names are familiar in the struggles of the early colonial days of the Plymouth Rock colony. Mr. Fifield is descended from the three Fifields who came from England in 1640 and held grants of land in New Hampshire direct from King George. They were proprietors of crown lands and prominent men in the little New England colony. Ancestors of both later carried arms against King George the Third in the Revolutionary war.

Were Pioneers
Mr. E. G. Fifield was born in New Hampshire eighty-six years ago. When but a small boy his father moved to Berlin, Vermont, and here he grew to manhood. Sixty-six years ago he came west and settled in Wisconsin. His journey to Wisconsin was full of peril and privation. He walked across Michigan from Detroit, and came by boat to Chicago from where he went to Milwaukee. From here he walked overland into Jefferson and Rock county and worked for a saw mill company, the first in this section of the country.

Fear of Indians
Among the interesting relics of this early period is a commission of second Lieutenant signed by Henry Dodge, governor, in August of 1840 sent to Mr. Fifield to help raise a company of mounted riflemen in case

KENT'S INJURIES ENDS THE SEASON

Carroll College Faculty Stop Football,
Owing to Janesville Boy Being Severely Hurt.

Owing to the fact that Harry C. Kent, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kent of 251 Cherry street, this city, broke his jaw while playing football at Carroll college this week the faculty of Carroll college have decided to abandon football from their list of sports for the coming fall and have ordered all games cancelled for the rest of the season. This decision was made by the faculty of the college after a careful vote on the question had been taken yesterday afternoon. First with the student body voting then with the faculty vote the students voted to continue the game and the faculty voted against it and then the faculty permanently disbanded the football team.

Players Refuse
The members of the football eleven were called before the faculty meeting this morning and asked if, in view of the many accidents, they would not give up playing for the season. The members unanimously decided not to comply with the faculty's request. The question was then put to a vote of the whole college,

WITH LINK AND PIN.

North-Western Road.
The present month is one of the dull ones as far as passenger traffic is concerned. On the calendar of most railroads of the country, speaking of passenger traffic this morning, Agent A. N. Gleason remarked that the agents at any station knew just about how many tickets to a given point would be sold during any month, under ordinary circumstances. If, for instance, 630 tickets to Chicago were sold during September 1902 it was a safe hazard that the number for September 1903 would not vary more than ten or twenty. Sometimes in his experience it has happened that the number would exactly correspond with that for the previous year. It is a curious phenomenon that no one has satisfactorily explained. The same people do not travel during the same months to the same points each year. Nor do weather conditions, which have their effect on traffic, remain constant from year to year. Yet the sales can be forecasted with as much accuracy as a mortuary table and if the forecast is not verified the officials at once begin to look for some disturbing factor, much as would the astronomer whose calculations had been upset.

Paul Creedle, painter, was called to Reelsburg, last night by the critical illness of his wife's mother.

Engineers Shumway and Gridley of the Wisconsin division went to Chicago yesterday.

A. R. Tallmadge, engineer on the switch engine, is laying off.

Fireman R. P. Kay laid off last night.

Night Caller, Walter Gregory laid off last night.

F. E. Harter, engineer on the Wisconsin division, reported for work this morning.

Seven Wisconsin division train crews were brought in this morning to handle a large number of trains that must leave Janesville today.

Frank Siebert, boiler washer, laid off this morning to make a brief visit with relatives on the Footville road. Herman Donner is taking his place.

Two masons and two tanners have been sent out to make repairs at stations along the Wisconsin division. The tanners are in Janesville today.

Foreman Ellis and crew repaired the pump house at Clinton Junction yesterday.

The Art Study Co. shipped out a carload of merchandise this morning.

Machinist Gordon Erickson leaves today for a short visit in Kaukauna.

August Bush, Herman Donner and Marzluft Hiles returned Thursday from their hunting trip to Koshkonong. They report good luck both with rod and gun.

Fireman Jettland who has been on the Green Bay gravel train, laid off Friday on account of illness.

Fireman Russell who is on the Rockford and Watertown passenger for work Friday.

Engineer James Clark, of the northern Wisconsin division reported for work yesterday.

Foreman Thomas Erickson went to Harvard on business yesterday.

The railroad men received their monthly envelopes yesterday.

St. Paul Road.
The following changes in time will be made, commencing Monday next: Train 105 will leave Janesville at 9:00 a. m., instead of 9:30 a. m., arriving at Rockford at 10:40. Train 128 will arrive at Janesville at 10:15 a. m., instead of 10:20.

Comencing tonight there will be no night operator at McFarland. The day operator will be on hand from 7:30 a. m. to 7:35 p. m. and will come on hand at 9:35 p. m. to handle the block 113 and No. 1.

Brakeman Wren went to Darlington on business yesterday.

Engineer John Falter has returned to work on the Mineral Point division.

MRS. R. POLLOCK DIES IN MINNESOTA

Stroke of Apoplexy the Cause—Was Visiting Her Sister in Morristown.

Mrs. Robert L. Pollock of this city died at the home of her sister, last at Morristown, Minnesota, last Thursday, according to a letter received by her sister, Mrs. C. D. Inman, 104 Locust street, yesterday. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Pollock left Janesville in apparently good health three weeks ago and her death comes as a great shock to her relatives and many friends in this county. Besides her husband, three sons are left to mourn her loss. They reside in the town of La Prairie and are George, Burt and Forest Gover. The relatives have left for the Minnesota city and the remains will be brought back here. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. Rev. Vaughan will officiate and interment will be at Oak Hill.

THINGS USEFUL FOR THE WOMEN

NICE LITTLE FACTS ABOUT CARE OF THE FACE.

JUST WHAT IS PROPER TO USE

Where the Articles Referred to May Be Had by the Purchaser.

Is it not woman's first duty to herself, to make the best of what nature has given her? This is the true, then, surely all women will be interested to know what to do and how to do it. There is no need of looking old and worn if one will only take proper care of one's self. Rest, of course would seem essential in all cases, at least to a certain extent, for no one can look at their best, when tired. However, the lines which come in one's face, from age or worry as the case may be, can be done away with and the complexion kept bright and fresh. If one will but take the necessary trouble and care. First of all women should know more of the actual composition of the toilet preparations which they use, in order that they may not be misled by either ignorant or unprincipled misstatements regarding their qualities. Creams are divided into two principal classes: those made with a fatty or oily base (vegetable) and those made with a glycerine base. The first class, the fatty creams, should be far more popular and widely used as they have proven to be infinitely more nourishing, healing and soothing, qualities largely lacking in glycerine creams.

Massage.
It would be safer and more effective for most persons to go to a professional for facial massage, for it must be done in a certain manner in order that good and lasting results be obtained.

The forehead must be rubbed crosswise from the center, outward, using both hands, a circular motion around the eyes and mouth. Always use an upward motion only, for the cheeks. Rub up and down the sides of the nose. The throat should be massaged in backward strokes directed toward the ears. This treatment may be continued for a month or more as required, but the cold cream jar should always be at hand for daily requirements. Hot water should be rarely used, except to relax the skin when tightly drawn, and then only at night upon retiring. In using any toilet preparation always use something which can be recommended. One of the best lines of toilet goods on the market are those manufactured by Richard Hudnut, of New York, these goods are pure and one can find any preparation desired. A full line of these goods is carried by McCue & Biss, druggists. Here you will find Hudnut's Marvelous Cold Cream, Violet Superba Face Powder, Milk of Cucumber and Orris. A delightful daylight lotion and many more of Hudnut's famous toilet articles.

Complexion Brushes.
Most women find the complexion brush a great convenience and if used in connection with Witch Hazel Cream the result will be very gratifying. Both these articles can be purchased of J. P. Baker.

The Hands.
The rage for beautiful rings has had a tendency to make women far more particular in regard to the care of the hands. The hands may be kept in excellent condition with but little trouble if one is careful, but a visit to the manicures, at least once a week, will prove more satisfactory in the end. One can also make one visit do for two, as almost all manicures do hairdressing.

The Hair.
Woman's crown should be given more attention than almost any other part of the toilet. Nothing so quickly makes or mars an otherwise perfect toilet.

The Haper method as given by the Misses Knippenberg, for massage of the scalp, will do much toward keeping the hair in perfect condition. This hair also carry a line of imported pig bristle brushes which are delightful to use and the price is only $2.00. It is a blessing to know that there is a hairdresser and manicure, who will come to your home for hair engagements, and Miss Knippenberg has prices remarkably low for the excellent work she does. Manicuring 50c. Shampooing and hairdressing, 75c. Refill, 10c. For a Cold on the Lungs, and to prevent pneumonia, take Pile's Cure, 25c.

MR. HOSKINS MOVES DOWN TO TEXAS

Has Been a Resident of Rock County
Since 1849—Will Redeem
State from Democracy.

Mr. J. A. Hoskins started Thursday night for Grady, Texas, where he will make his permanent home. Mr. Hoskins has been a Rock county resident since 1849. He will engage in the milling business at Grady, where his family has resided for the past year. Mr. Hoskins made the trip to Texas in a special slide door car, taking with him his horses, chickens, and household goods. He says he is going to redeem the state from democracy and while he may be undertaking a large contract Wisconsin people who know him, have confidence in his ability to perform the task. His many old time friends will wish him success in his new home.

WILL MARRY IN MANILA HARBOR

Long Trip of a Janesville Girl To Wed the Man of Her Choice.

Miss Gertrude Granger, who is to marry William Black, the Philippine missionary, has left Sioux City and is now on her way to San Francisco, where on the 23rd of this month, she will sail for Manila on the Siberia, the Pacific mail steamer, which makes regular trips to the islands.

MISS GERTRUDE GRANGER
time was sent to the Philippines as a missionary for the Congregational church.

Miss Granger expects to reach Manila November 20th. Mr. Black will immediately board the ship and the marriage will take place. The young couple will make their home in the little village of Davao in the southeast corner of the island of Mindanao. There are less than half a dozen white people in this cluster of houses and the wild surrounding country is mostly inhabited by the fierce tribes of Moros. These are the people who have given Uncle Sam so much trouble. Their religion is Mohammedism and they are considered the most difficult class to convert to the Christian faith. The people around the village of Davao are pagans and worship idols, and these will be the companions of Mr. and Mrs. Black. Mr. Black will try to teach these people the Christian faith and his wife will receive their first steps in learning under her guidance. The couple intend to remain seven years on the island, this being the allotted time for missionaries.

BELOIT WOMAN GRANTED DIVORCE

Was Given on Grounds of Desertion,
and Failure to Support.

Mrs. Mary Bunnell of Beloit was yesterday granted a decree of divorce from Isaac E. Bunnell by Judge Dunwiddie. The couple were married in Minneapolis ten years ago and Mrs. Bunnell asked for the separation on the grounds of desertion and failure to support. She told the court of her husband's lack of support and that she was obliged to work for her living.

CHILDREN OF THE GHETTO.

"When we have a cent, we say he come along; when we have a cent, we say he come along," such was the little boy's introduction of his chum, Key, to the new teacher at the mission, who was very grateful for this expression of friendliness as she found herself for the first time in the presence of the children of the ghetto.

Other introductions were volunteered; eight year old Rachel Korschewsky smiled serenely as she sat upon the stairs holding a bouncing baby brother in her arms.

"My mama is a washer lady," she said. "I bring the baby by me or stay to home. There's ten children. My papa, he run away from us."

"Her papa is a tailor," added her friend, Rebecca Labinschütz.

Well, continued Rachel in a tone of sadness, "All tailors run away from their families."

"Our name is Cohen," interrupted one of the group of three sisters, with an air of superiority, being the fortunate possessor of that name.

As the teacher removed her hat and laid it on the piano for safety, she was pelted with such questions as "Do you paid for coming here?" "Do you teach school? Do you live far? Have you got flowers?"

"Why do you come to the mission?" was asked in return.

"Cause we don't have no good times at school; to sew; to hear the story; to get flowers and picture papers; to have fun," answered, a medley of voices.

The school was called to order. Miss E. realized herself a stranger in a foreign land as from the platform she looked into the faces of 50 Italian, Polish and German Jews.

The room was uncomfortably filled—three pupils on two chairs.

The girls removed their tam-o-shanters or their coats if possessed of either and hung them on the backs of the chairs.

The boys, large and small had chosen seats in the front rows.

"Hats off," boys, while in the house," was graciously requested. A few obeyed but soon put them on again from force of habit and "new teacher" was taught a lesson in Jewish customs.

What can you sing? was asked. Up went several hands and a jargon of voices responded.

"Well, Samuel you may tell," "Have courage my boy to say no," was the reply and the first verse was sung vigorously by all the boys the girls remaining silent.

For variety let us sing, "Have courage my girl to say no," with the result that all the girls sang and two boys remained silent or snickered audibly.

Now a choir on the front row on which sat Abby was mysteriously overtured.

"It was his," shouted several boys pointing to a 17 year old boy, a stranger, who sat in the second row.

"You may be excused from the room," said Miss E. to the visitor who obeyed reluctantly and pulled the door bell as for an alarm of fire as he departed.

"Some one who is sitting quietly may choose the song," and in the hush that followed Solomon Goldstein proposed "America" which was sung or hummed merrily by all voices through "My Native Country" was in many cases far over the sea.

As the opening exercises proceeded a childish voice was heard to say "Oh, you're be Christian; we're be Jew," and seizing her cap Esther Meyer dashed out the door followed by three other little Meyers.

You wonder why the children came to the mission?

They answered the question sincerely—to have a good time, to sew, to receive a bit of cheer in the form of a story paper or a few blossoms to carry home, oh, so carefully.

Boys sew!

Yes, even boys were interested in learning to sew and weave baskets at the mission.

One bright December day Miss E. climbed the stairs at a west side railway station and emerged at the level of the viaduct where waited, patiently, "the chums." Abby and Key, whose faces were aglow with expectation.

A reward for "never late and never tardy" had been offered and won by both boys, of course, for they were inseparable companions.

The package in teacher's hand was sufficient proof of the fulfillment of the promise.

As they trudged through the deep snow clearing the path and chatting in secret, Miss E. observed a rent in the back of Key's coat nearly its entire length and holes in the elbows too much ventilation for zero weather and she mentally resolved to sew up the rent or to teach Key how at the next lesson.

The rewards were presented in the presence of the kindergarten class, of thirty children, of which "the chums" were much loved members.

The prize was an illustrated copy of Columbus' preparation for the voyage and his discovery of America.

The pictures were so large and richly colored as to almost take the breath for wonder.

"See! what them fine!" exclaimed Abby.

"They be that," responded Key as he turned the pages pausing to study the scenes.

When he found the picture of Columbus' landing and carrying the cross before the little company as they stepped on shore, a questioning glance passed between the boys. Dare they take the books home? Would they be thrown in the fire or the leaves scattered in the street as other boy's bibles had been?

But the books were approved of in the families and daily these boys carried their Columbus stories to and from school, closely buttoned under their coats for fear of rough boys.

Cause when we are at home we want it said Abby; "and when we are at school we want it, too," said Key.

A week later Miss E. provided herself with linen thread to repair the rent in Key's coat but was disappointed upon arriving at the station to find her faithful escort missing.

Indeed, it was about time to open school when Key burst into the room so transformed in appearance as to be scarcely recognizable.

"O teacher!" he exclaimed nearly out of breathe for running, "we had a fire at our house last night and it burned up all my clothes!" and with a proud glance at his new blue suit, he remarked "them's new."

It was to strange almost, to be true that clothes could so change a ragged street urchin; but the group of admirers stepped back in awe for Key dignified about fifteen square feet of space.

Abby's pair had a fire too, last week "said Key with a twinkle in his eye. But evidently not all of Abby's clothes were burned and even he appeared a little abashed in Key's presence.

One should know where such boys live in order to appreciate the situation.

Abby's home was in the center of a solid block of three story tenement houses. You take a narrow passage way to the door between two buildings; climb the stairs on the outside of a two story building and there with scarcely a ray of sunlight to dry the atmosphere lived in seclusion a Jewish family.

To go to Key's find no—on—street take the passage way on the right leading to the rear; enter a dark hall and if you have the courage, grope along till you stub your toes on a stair, then ascend; presently a ray of light from a dingy window will greet you; proceed to the top; knock on the door.

Once a week two sunbeams came from these houses to the industrial school to cheer us by their mainly presence.

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.

After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.

I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Bessie Ricker

President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.

A BOY'S BEST FRIEND.

A box of cake came by mail, the other day, to a young man who was working out his destiny among strangers, in a city far from home. As he passed it around to his associates he said "this is from my mother and it is a very pleasant reminder of home."

Some one suggested that in talking with a friend of the family, a few days before, he was told that the young man had a mother of whom any boy should be proud.

"Yes," the boy replied, "there's no discount on that, there are two of us boys, and also never fails to write to us every week," and as he talked it was not difficult to discover that the magic cord of love spanned the distance that separated them, vibrating with melody which unselfish love only can inspire.

The little scrap from home contained more than cake. It was an expression of a mother's thoughtfulness and a silent reminder of a mother's solicitude. It said in language not difficult to understand, "the old home has not forgotten you, and be assured that it never will."

The little scrap of experience is being repeated every day, all over the world, and young men are being steadied and held to their work, through the influence of the mother, whose love is so Christlike, that it excels all other human love.

Like many other blessings it is seldom appreciated until the day of separation comes. The step across the threshold of the home into the great outside world, may not seem a very important step and yet it leads to destiny or failure with monotonous regularity.

When the boy is ready to take it he is fired with ambition, and in his eagerness to mingle with the throng, and become a part of its busy life, hope inspires his heart, and imagination paints a picture of achievement with such glowing colors that not a cloud is discovered. To his thought the world is waiting for his advent, and he sometimes wonders how it has managed to jog along without him.

Not so the mother. When she held him to her bosom in babyhood, and hushed him to sleep with a lullaby, thought traveled out into the years, and as she tucked him away for the night and kissed away the tears with a "God bless the baby," a prayer was in her heart for the welfare of the boy, through the uncertain years of childhood, and for his development into the full stature of a man, should his life be spared.

This was but the commencement of her solicitude, and her patience never wearied, and her love only became more intense as the years went by. Through the years of boyhood the same watchful care was manifest and when he was too large to sit on her knee, she became his companion entering into his life, sharing his hopes, encouraging ambition, sympathizing with his discouragements, and attempting by every device to mould his character for the years of responsibility not far ahead.

When he stood on the verge of young manhood, anxious for the fray and ignorant as to its importance and dangers, it was her voice that bade him "God speed" and her love that followed him.

She may have needed him in the home, and the separation, which meant so little to him, may have seemed like a death knell to her, but there was no visible trace of disappointment, for her love was so unselfish that only the good of the boy was considered, and she was satisfied that his place was in the great outside arena.

Fortunate is the boy, away from home, who has a mother to remember him with a letter once a week, and who never forgets his birthday. It is the one link uniting old life to the new, which has many a boy steady on his course, until he came to himself and took on the responsibilities of self-asserting manhood.

The memory that clings to life the longest is the memory of this kind of a mother. In a little old frame farm house before the war, a mother was stricken with disease, and for three years was a helpless invalid.

Her constant companion and attendant was a boy and as the months went by the patient fortitude of the uncomplaining sufferer so won the heart of the lad that it stamped his life with an indelible impression, which time has never removed.

Talk with him about his early life and he will tell you that its most sacred sanctuary is found in the little old house where an invalid mother by her silent influence prepared him for the conflict, and that her memory lingers as a sacred benediction.

There are thousands of men who owe all that they possess of character and success to the mother who never forgot them, and whose love followed them like an invisible angel, through all the years of chance and change.

There are too many young men today who do not fully appreciate a mother's love and solicitude. Young men who think it manly to be independent and free from the loving restraints of home. The mother is considered good enough to darn the stockings, sew on the buttons and preside in the kitchen, but a little too ancient for an every day companion.

This class of boys find but little attraction in the home, which is used as a convenience, and not as an abiding place. The love of the mother may be ever so strong—and it is never weak—but it fails to hold them.

The boys do not realize it, but they are making their first grave mistake, and making it at a period in life, when it will have a lasting influence.

The boy who loves his mother and obeys her because he loves her, is building a foundation for character that will stand the test of time.

A boy stood at the desk in a busy office. He waited with hat in hand, to gain the attention of the man he called to see. Presently he turned to him and said, "Well my boy what is it?"

The boy had been seeking work in a strange city, without success and he said in faltering voice, "I am looking for work. Do you need a boy?" The man took him in at a glance, was impressed with his honest face and said, "Yes; we need a boy, what is your reference?"

The boy had no reference, for he was just from the country, and so he said: "I don't know any one in the city and I have no reference."

The man turned to his desk, and said, "I'm sorry, but we can't employ you without reference."

The boy turned away and then came back and producing a letter said:

"Here is a letter I just received from my mother; perhaps you will read it."

The letter was read, and it was so full of motherly love that it appealed to the stranger, and he said, "Yes; my boy, that's good reference; you may stay and go to work right away."

The business world recognizes the debt which it owes to faithful mothers. When the boys appreciate more keenly the same obligation, there will be more men of character, and more happy mothers. A boy's best friend is his mother.

Teacher in students a trade, and show starts them at work. Railroads give our graduates immediate employment and furnish free passes to destinations. We have more orders for operators than we can fill, and give students choice of different railroads in many states. Call at our office, and we will show you letters from railroad superintendents in all parts of the country ordering men and sending passes for them to travel on. There are many young men in Janesville and vicinity who would be greatly benefited by a course in this school, because they would be quickly taught a trade, and then get to work in the line of the great railroad officials, and there is no other business which offers such opportunities for advancement, and can be so quickly learned, the average time required in our school being less than four months. A good trade is the best possession a young man can have. The superintendent of this division of the Northwestern Railroad was formerly a student in this school, and hundreds of other officials began with us. Write for our catalogue which tells all about it, or come and see us in the Jackson Building.

CONTENTMENT IN SMOKE

WE have solved a problem— we believe after much thought and experiment, after much hard work we have brought together a combination of tobaccos with the ever fragrant and necessary clear Havana as a basis, and a blending of other equally necessary leaf into a roc cigar which will shortly make its appearance on the market under the name of

Don Almo

While there are many experimental smokers ready to try my new promising brand of cigar that makes a fair bid for trade, it is not an easy thing to produce a cigar that through absolute merit will win away from their favorite smokes the fellows who are partial.

Don Almo

will catch the taste of every roc smoker in the city. We never have made an unwise move yet in the cigar production and we have every confidence in the future of

JANESVILLE IS FIRST TO SCORE

MAKES SAFETY ON LAKE GENEVA HIGH SCHOOL.

ARE PLAYING A SNAPPY GAME

Keeps Ball in Enemy's Territory During the First Half of Play.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the Janesville eleven lined up against their first formidable opponents of the season, the Lake Geneva high school team. This aggregation has the reputation of putting up a good game in the past and this year they are out for the championship. Reports from people who have seen this year's eleven are to the effect that they have been putting up a fast and heavy game. Lake Geneva has won from Bloomington 41 to 0 and from Elkhorn 12 to 0. Elkhorn was downed by the East Division high school, Milwaukee, with a score of 17 to 0 so the Geneva eleven is well on a par with the Milwaukee boys.

The delegation from the lake are confident of winning and the result of this game will effect the supremacy of the schools in the league.

The line-up The Janesville boys have been working hard on the practice field for the past two weeks and are ready to tackle anything after the success of the Beloit game. They will line-up practically the same as in the game with Beloit, although there will be changes before the finish of the play this afternoon. The following is the line-up: C. Caldwell; R. G. Kennedy; R. T. Atwood; R. E. Clithero; L. G. Carle; L. G. Locke; L. E. Ryan; Q. B. Galbraith; R. H. Flaherty; L. H. Robery; F. H. Milmore.

Lake Geneva—Grant, L. E.; Tull, L. T.; Oleson, L. G.; Laurie, G. G.; Marsh, R. G.; Vosburg, R. T.; Wadsworth, R. B.; Miller, L. H.; Bar, F. B.; Shannon, R. H.; La Salle, Q. B.

Janesville Scores The play started at 2:30 and Janesville kept the ball in the Lake Geneva territory during the entire twenty minutes of play. It finally was forced across the line for a safety by one of the lake players. The first half ended two to nothing in favor of Janesville.

JOHNSON STILL REMAINS HERE

Has Not Secured Goodwin House—New Hostelry in Line City Nearing Completion.

According to a Beloit paper, E. C. Johnson will not occupy the Goodwin house in the Line city. Although the Myers hotel, is closed, the former landlord retains the keys and owing to some legal proceeding will not give them up. His personal property is still in the hotel and matters are apparently hanging fire for the present.

The new hotel in Beloit is rapidly going up and in four weeks time it is expected that the walls will be completed and the roof in place.

WEARY WAITING FOR TOM JOYCE

HAS BEEN IN JAIL NEARLY THREE MONTHS.

WOMEN SEND HIM FLOWERS

And Good Things to Eat, and a Few Visit Him Occasionally—Trial in November Term.

Literary minutes slowly; culinary drag wearily; into midnight hours for Tom Joyce, who awaits in the county jail his trial for the murder of Herman Zimmerman. Joyce has been in confinement since his arrest on the 24th of July. The assault on Zimmerman was committed on the evening of May 23 and his death resulted on the 3rd of June. The hearing of the man suspected of the crime was concluded on August 14, and he was bound over to the circuit court for trial. The case is to come up at the approaching November term.

An Imperturbable Silence.

The cell allotted to Joyce is one of four that open into a caged corridor to which the prisoners have access during the day-time. He spends most of the time reading or conversing with his fellows but no word escapes his lips concerning the part he did or did not play in the terrible tragedy this spring.

Some Faithful Friends

There is a bouquet of flowers on the table of the caged prisoner most of the time, as well as books and magazines which few of his faithful friends send to him. Among the visitors to call frequently to see him are one or two young women. Occasionally they take him a box of good things to eat which he generously shares with the other prisoners.

A Model Prisoner

He is scrupulously neat in his appearance and preserves a cheerful demeanor at all times. No word of complaint has ever come from him since his incarceration. On this account he is well liked by the authorities and they do what they can to make things as pleasant as may be under the circumstances.

ARRANGE TIME FOR THE MEETING

Rock County Teachers' Association Meets on December Fifth in Janesville.

At the meeting of the committee of the Rock County Teachers' association held recently at the high school building the program for the annual conference of the association was in part decided upon. The time and place of the gathering was also chosen and other details attended to.

Early Session

The opening session will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, December 5th, and will last during the day. The entire program is not yet known, as several well known men will be asked to take part.

Addresses in Morning

In the morning there will be addresses by State Secretary C. I. Carey, Prof. Salisbury of the Wisconsin normal, Superintendent Shawalter of the blind institute and the Rev. Denison.

The afternoon will be divided into four sections; the high school section, primary, grammar and country school section. A number of addresses will be given on these and appropriate subjects.

Election of Officers

After this part of the program there will be a business meeting and the election of officers for the ensuing year will occur. The Rock county association is one of the largest and most enthusiastic in the state and the coming meeting will surpass that of last year it is expected, both in attendance and the high standard of the program which is now being arranged by the committee.

DARRACH WAS WELL RECEIVED

Merchant of Venice at the Congregational Church Last Evening.

A fair sized audience at the Congregational church last evening listened to Marshall Darrach's recital of the Merchant of Venice, which was well received. The next recital of the course will be given Friday evening, October 23, and the last on October 30th.

Mr. Darrach is one of the most widely known Shakespearean scholars of the day. His clever portrayal of the different difficult characters of the Merchant of Venice clearly showed him to be a thorough master of his art. His voice is rich and attractive and his stage manner is very pleasing. His changes from the scenes of Portia to those of Shylock were so pronounced that it filled the audience with admiration. His personality on the stage is one which holds the audience spellbound from the beginning to the end of the discourse. Throughout the recital was thoroughly artistic and absolutely free from all ranting so usual with entertainments of this nature. While the audience was comparatively small it was composed of the most select students of Shakespeare in the city and many who did not attend will miss a great deal unless they hear the rest of the course.

Special orders taken during our far opening Monday and Tuesday.

BARBER SHOPS IN BAR-ROOMS

And Harness Shops, Discovered by M. H. Whittaker on Tour of Inspection.

Secretary M. H. Whittaker returned last evening from a trip to Sheboygan, Oshkosh, Manitowish, and other cities in the interests of the state barbers' commission. As a general thing he found that the rules had been posted in the shops and that there was a disposition to obey them.

Shops in Saloons

Several unsanitary shops were discovered in Sheboygan and one of them was being conducted in a saloon. The latter was entirely separate from the bar, however.

At Waikesh a very unclean shop was also found in a saloon and the proprietor was given thirty days to comply with the rules.

One in Harness Shop

His attention was called to a shop in Oakfield run by a harness-maker. This shop was reported to be one of the worst in the section as the proprietor is in the habit of making the transition from one trade to another without washing his hands.

Another shop is run in connection with a confectionary store but sanitary methods prevail.

Lenient With Villages

The board is not disposed to be harsh with the small villages where water works and other conveniences are not available. It is only asked that proprietors be clean in their work. 2,392 licenses have been issued and fifty applications are on file.

Mr. Whittaker's attention has been called to an apparent violation of the apprentice rules at Brooklyn. A man is employed on a farm during the day and at a shop at night.

BRIEFLETS

Christ church rummage sale will be held in store on North Main between gas company and Helm-street, commencing Oct. 21st, continuing through week. Members of parish have bundles ready Tuesday, Oct. 20th.

Kline To Go... J. C. Kline will leave Thursday of next week to attend the annual secretarial conference which will begin in Milwaukee on that day. Mr. Ward the new physical director will also attend. If the work at the building can be arranged. Secretaries and physical directors from all the associations in the state will be present and the gathering will be of vast interest to all Y. M. C. A. men.

Taken To Asylum: Albert Brown of Milton was examined and committed to the Rock county insane asylum yesterday. He was taken there by Sheriff Appleby.

To Have Club Rooms: Oriental Lodge, No. 22, of the Knights of Pythias contemplates securing a club room for members only and a committee was appointed at the last meeting to take steps towards procuring the same. The room will be provided with reading material and a card table.

Funeral of Mrs. Pollock: The funeral of the late Mrs. Robert Pollock will be held from the residence, 265 South Bluff street, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. E. J. Schmidly delightedly entertained the members of the Ladies' Century Whist club Thursday afternoon. Cards were the order of entertainment and a charming three course luncheon was served. Prizes were won by Mrs. John Crowley, Mrs. George Devins and Mrs. Michael Hayes. Plans were made for the coming winter and the next meeting will be held the first week in November.

Leaves The Hospital: Russell's ambulance was called out this morning to take John Decker from the hospital to his home. His condition is very much improved.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Monday at 3 p. m. with Mrs. J. S. Kearney, No. 5 Jeffris Flats. As this will be the last meeting that Mrs. E. E. Yates and Mrs. Archie Crawford will be able to attend; it is hoped that every member will be present.

Current Football Doings

Lack of Intersectional Matches Makes National Supremacy a Moot Question: The Western Players. Carlisle Indians.

In the absence of bizarre developments in eastern football, where the coaches have merely grumbled and not openly criticized the new rules, the eyes of those who seek gridiron sensations from year to year are turned toward the west.

Western football owes its firm foundation to the host of eastern college

CAPTAIN "SHORTY" ELLSWORTH, CHICAGO UNIVERSITY.

players who flooded the western fields when the big institutions were still in the experimental stage of the game.

These men grounded the westerners in the rudiments of the game and were soon turning out eleven that played in the conventional style of Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Pennsylvania.

After several years of close adherence to eastern methods, however, a change came over the spirit of western football, and such teams as Chicago, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern, Iowa and Illinois took the bit in their teeth and began to try out innovations of their own. So successful were many of these experiments that it may be said the westerners are now no longer dependent upon the east for advanced football education.

In the matter of speed in the handling of the back field the last two seasons have shown that the westerners are thoroughly up to date and in some instances have advanced even beyond the east in football science.

In the absence of intersectional contests that question must remain a mooted point, but one thing is certain—there are now in the west several schools of football markedly distinct in many respects from the eastern types.

And these schools have developed high scoring teams such as the east has not seen in years.

Michigan was a sensational leader in this respect last year, and the University doubtedly have impressed the east with the high quality of their work on the offensive.

With the new rules in force the westerners are hardly likely to suffer greatly, and that this is so is shown by the almost invariably high scores in the early games.

At the present writing Michigan and Chicago seem to shape up as the leaders, both using a fairly open game. Their backs are rangy and rugged, their ends and tackles very fast, their kicking excellent and their teams throughout as weighty as possible considering the speed required.

Minnesota and Northwestern are not so fortunate, both lacking new material.

Taken on the whole, the work of the western teams up to the present has been notable for the fast work, both in interference and with ball in hand of the back fields, whereas in nearly every instance the line-men have not yet achieved former standards.

With so much dependence placed upon the back field it would seem not unlikely that if starting work with the quarter back is to be accomplished under the new rules the innovations may first be heard from in the west.

The University of Chicago eleven has confidence "to burn, to rent, to put in the bank and to give away." Captain ("Shorty") Ellsworth and Coach Alonzo A. Stang are having daily visions of a triumphant climax in the big games.

Captain Ellsworth is the star line-man who greatly strengthened the Maroons a year ago. He is playing his old position, right tackle, and, as pundits say, is a good "ring general."

The Carlisle Indians are playing fast football this year. The aborigines' line up is the best since the days of Hudson, the phenomenal goal kicking quarter back.

James P. Johnson is captain. He is a snappy, heady quarter back. Coach Warner considers him the equal of the best quarters in the country.

The line up of the Indians at present is as follows: Nephew (Fisher), left end; White (Bowen), left tackle; Pece (White), left guard; Sheldon, full back; Williams (Sawchuk), center; Charles (Matthews), right half back; Dillon (Sannook), right guard; James (Exendine), right tackle; Kennedy (Jude), right end; Johnson (Libby), quarter back; Hendricks, left half back.

Of all the captains in the east this year Princeton has the most brilliant in the person of John R. De Witt. This man is rightly considered the greatest

PAUL J. DASHIELL OF THE RULES COMMITTEE.

Mr. Dashiell is one of the foremost football authorities in the United States. He is a graduate of Lehigh (Bethlehem, Pa.) university and of the Annapolis Naval academy. He is usually chosen to referee two or three of the big games of the season.

athlete in the colleges of America today. At kicking goals from the field he has probably never had an equal. He has played every position on an eleven and done well in each of them. He is idolized at Princeton, and no man could have been selected who is better able to put heart in the Tigers, who have been under a cloud since they defeated Yale by a score of 11 to 0 in 1899.

Among eastern football teams Yale seems to have the best outlook for a strong eleven, with such men as Shevlin, Kinney, Hagan, Captain Rafferty, Rockwell, Metcalf and Bowman. Bloomer, the freshman tackle of the 1900 team, is again in the field and may be used to fill up the gap in the center which is left by the graduation of Holt, Glass and Goss.

At Princeton Davis, McClave, Kafer, Bradley, Burke, Rafferty (in constin of the Yale captain), Brown and Waller are the remnants of last year's team who have rallied to the support of Captain De Witt, and the freshman class is comparatively an unknown quantity.

Harvard has five old men back, the loss of Graydon, Putnam and Kernan, her back field, being regarded as serious. But while this was a star back field it has always appeared to have been lacking in one particular, which last year was not generally realized even by experts. As a back field it could not play one-half the defensive game which the Yale and Princeton back fields played.

Fitz and Gardiner.

If the contest between George Gardiner and Bob Fitzsimmons is arranged at all, the chances are that the mill will have to be held at San Francisco. The decision of the courts against the International A. C. of Port Erie has upset plans and the mill cannot be held as soon as suggested by Fitz. The Cornishman says that his theatrical engagements will prevent him from meeting Gardiner at a later date, and that if the scrap is held it will have to take place on the Pacific coast.

ADMITS HE MURDERED BOY.

Montana Indian intended to kill teen more.

Browning, Mont., Oct. 15.—A man who admitted and confessed to the murder of a boy, made the United States Commissioner Arnaud by James P. Plum. He confessed to the killing of the seven persons found dead on the Blackfoot Indian reservation and said that his intention was to kill further more, but a shell stuck in his rifle rendering it useless. He then cut a gash in his own throat and arm to allay suspicion.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth. Be sure and use that old and well tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND — OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or official names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefit conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—"Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup"—and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.

TO CONTROL BREAD AND MILK

St. Louis Trust Secures Options and Will Crush Small Dealers.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 17.—St. Louis is to have a bread and milk trust unless plans of the St. Louis Food Product Company go wrong. The capital stock is to be $5,500,000. Options have been secured on all the large dairies and large bakeries are to be built. The prospectus sets forth the magnitude of the milk and bread trade of St. Louis and the present conditions with 500 firms striving for a share of the business. The dairies on which options have been secured are the largest in the city and control the major part of the trade as it is. It is represented that by shortening the routes of the wagons better service can be given and the smaller dairies will be compelled to extend their routes to the point of unprofitableness and finally give up the fight.
